

YOU CAN BE THE ★ ARTIST !!

The Marlton chapter of Art Goes to School invites you to create your own artwork, inspired by “I Saw the Figure Five in Gold,” by Charles Demuth

One winner will be chosen from each elementary school, and the winning artwork will be framed and hung in your school !!

Contest rules:

- You may use any art materials you like (exs. crayons, paint, pastels, markers, colored pencils, collage scraps)
- Use 8 1/2 x 11 paper, held in either portrait or landscape orientation
- You may use colors or shades of white, black, and gray
- Your artwork must include a large numeral from 1-9 (1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8 or 9)
- Your picture must be handed in to your classroom teacher by May 24th. (If you attend school remotely, just take a photo of your finished artwork and send it to your teacher.)
- Please tape a piece of paper to the back of your artwork with your name, school name, grade, and a sentence or two telling why you chose that special number.
- Your parents may help you gather your materials, but all artwork must be completed by the student.

This is not a school-sponsored event.
