

HEALTHY KIDS RUNNING SERIES NOW OFFERING FIVE-WEEK, IN-PERSON RACE SERIES AT MARLTON MIDDLE SCHOOL TO HELP CHILDREN MAINTAIN AN ACTIVE HEALTHY LIFESTYLE

FIRST OF FIVE CONSECUTIVE SUNDAY RACES SET FOR SEPTEMBER 12 AT 5 P.M.

Healthy Kids Running Series, a national inclusive and fun youth running experience, inspiring kids (ages 2-14) to believe in themselves and lead an active healthy lifestyle, is conducting a safe, five-week in-person spring running Series featuring once-a-week racing at Marlton Middle School (150 Tomlinson Mill Road, Marlton, NJ 08053), beginning Sunday, September 12 at 5 p.m. Registration is now open at HealthyKidsRunningSeries.org.

Healthy Kids Running Series is a five-week program with once-a-week races on Sundays, beginning September 12 with age-appropriate race distances. Kids compete each week in their designated age or grade level division. Every participant will receive a T-Shirt and Medal. Registration starts at $35 for the five-week Series and is open now at HealthyKidsRunningSeries.org.

Healthy Kids Running Series impacts more than 60,000 youth runners in 300+ communities across the United States. Healthy Kids Running Series engages communities and families by providing an inclusive youth running experience, inspiring kids to believe in themselves and lead active healthy lifestyles.
